TRAITS

Aries enjoys making plans and winning competitions. They are drawn towards industrious and progressive people. On the other hand, people born in Aries dislike having to wait even the smallest amount of time. They try to avoid situations where they would have to obey rules. It is quite difficult to communicate with an Aries, as they are quite distracted and focused on their own needs and plans. The planet Mars influences them to act assertive and strong willed. Being a fire sign, Aries is similar to fire, warm, bright and vital. This zodiac sign is ruled by the first house which is the symbol of power, physical body and personal needs. A true Aries is enthusiastic and resourceful but not very keen on pursuing its plans up to accomplishment. As the first sign in the zodiac, the presence of Aries always marks the beginning of something energetic and turbulent. They are continuously looking for dynamic, speed and competition, always being the first in everything - from work to social gatherings. Aries is one of the most active zodiac signs. It is in their nature to take action, sometimes before they think about it well. Aries have excellent organizational skills, so you'll rarely meet an Aries who isn't capable of finishing several things at once.

POSITIVE TRAITS

Aries people love to be winners. Their competitive nature, working hard and smart means that they usually succeed quite well in all areas of their life. These people are self confident, creative and very competitive. The biggest strength of any Aries is represented by the fact they possess a sharp temper and they are very adaptable to almost any situation they encounter in life. Some other Aries qualities are loyalty and respectfulness. They are not only extremely efficient but also very resourceful. A thriving Aries knows how to make use of their ambition and sharp temper in order to succeed in life, although they sometimes may need to try many different paths before they settle to one.

NEGATIVE TRAITS

Knowing when to compromise and accept that others may have good ideas too is what Aries need to learn. They are overly confident and prone to building up depression or sadness feelings as they do not open easily to others because they don't want to risk crashing their strong appearance. Sometimes they tend to be very undiplomatic and self absorbed. Aries weaknesses include hastiness, moodiness and intolerance. But the biggest of them all is the fact that they sometimes pride to much of their own person. Aries individuals can make their life easier if they learn to accept defeat and to acknowledge that people are also prone to mistakes and things sometimes don't go the way they planned.

HEALTH

The way Aries feel, both emotionally and physically has never been a serious matter for them. They seem to be fearless and consider themselves immune to any health issue. Although most times this proves not to be the best idea. The Aries zodiac sign rules the head, eyes and ears. This suggests that some small incidents regarding their head and eyes may occur to these natives and that they are also prone to frequently catching colds. This sign is somehow prone to accidents and should take precautions to avoid accidents involving their upper body parts.

JOBS

managers, policemen, soldiers, fashion designer, firemen, bomb squad, fighter pilots, dentist, ophthalmologist, surgeon, brain surgeon, butcher, sportsmen (preferably dangerous or extreme sports), mountaineer, adventurer, tour guide, explorer, referee, trainer, personal coach, artist, rebel, doctors and nurses without borders, various foreign missions, fighter, trade unionists, mechanics and tool designers, and every imaginable kind of technician.

LOVE

Fiercely passionate, Aries people can also be hasty when it comes to love. Often, they find it difficult to show their feelings. For the pretentious Aries lover, love does not come easy, but once they have fallen in love, they become the walking image of fools in love. Aries people are attracted to eccentric and creative people who can maintain their interest alive. One can win the heart of Aries if they are just as free spirited as them. When caught up on their own, these natives tend to be focused on keeping their lives busy with their goals. Aries in a couple is sentimental, impulsive and would do anything for their loved ones once a passionate connection has been created.

FAMILY LIFE

Being close to their family plays an important role in the life of Aries. They are very devoted to their families and are willing to make any sacrifice necessary for their children. Aries children are determined and demanding. They know exactly what they want and they do whatever it takes to get it. Aries teenagers seem to keep their childhood behaviour and add to it even more persistence and resourcefulness. The Aries individual is quite independent from his family but very loyal and reliable when necessary. They don't feel any need to sacrifice their own desires but in the same time they somehow manage to be successful both in their field of activity but also in their families.

WOMEN

The Aries women are lively, confident and trust their instincts. Not only Miss Aries is very attractive and magnetic but she is also elegant and refined. These natives are positive and always surrounded by people. They are correct and resourceful and crave for their own independence at a young age. However they are sometimes overly trustful and might get hurt because of that. They are driven to make themselves known and build a comfortable life.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

Aries women are fearless and natural leaders. They are energetic, charismatic, dynamic, and in love with challenges and adventures. If you want to attract the attention of an Aries woman, you must let her seduce you and appeal to her independent nature. A woman born under the Aries zodiac sign is extremely passionate and sexual, which makes her irresistible to the opposite sex. She is constantly on the move and will never allow herself to be overrun by a man, at the same time craving for love but trying to hold on to control. To attract a woman born in this sign, one has to take action but not give the impression that control has been taken over. She needs to be free to show initiative and fight for affection of her loved one, expecting the same in return. Once she falls in love, she is extremely faithful, and at times overly jealous. Dating her means giving her all the attention she needs, giving her time and constant effort to prove there is love behind the act. Confident and domineering, she doesn't just need someone to follow, but someone to be equally energetic and strong. A relationship with an Aries woman can be interesting, full of adventures and excitement, but only if one is ready to take on a less dominant role from time to time.

COMPATIBILITY

Aries people may have already noticed they are attracted to the other two fire signs: Leo and Sagittarius. With Leos they share the same fiery temperament, while Sagittarians will always attract them with their apparent calm but achieving nature. In love, Aries is in a constant search for someone with whom they can establish a trustful and emotional connection and to whom they can open their souls to. On the other hand, they secretly want to be adored and require a lot of attention. The most suitable sign to give them this kind of commitment is Libra. Also, the fiery Aries is tempered by peaceful and non-confrontational Libra. However, as both signs are adventurous, their union will bring them exciting experiences. On the other hand, Aries people seem to be least compatible with Pisces because they seem to have different views on way too many things in life. You may notice that sometimes things just don't click and although physical desire may be there, these two signs don't really manage to open to each other on an emotional level.

FRIENDSHIP

Aries people are very supportive with the dreams and plans of their friends and they are always eager to give a helping hand. They make one of the most inspirational friends someone can ever meet. But when it comes to hard times they kind of disappear and reappear when things finally calm down. They are very sociable but you'll also be surprised by their loyalty. Aries people tend to form friendships at a young age and they seem to keep their childish behaviour in the company of those dear, even when they get older.

MEN

The Aries men are strong, enthusiastic and overconfident. They are ready for whatever adventure life sets on their way but they can also be very understanding and caring. They have a generally positive approach to life. They tend to be manipulative when things don't go the way they want them to but they won't resource to hurting people unnecessary. The ram men are impulsive but full of inner strength.

ATTRACTING MEN

Independence is the key to understanding an Aries, for they don't like to take orders from others. In order to seduce an Aries man, you need to learn to play the game by his rules. This man often finds the chase for the subject of his desire more thrilling than the catch, and his conquering nature makes him often chase after partners he can't have. To get his attention, one must play hard to get, as if sending a message that he needs to fight for a prize, and winning the one he truly wants to be with. This is a man in love with a good challenge and in a rush to become their partner's "knight in shining armour", so he needs to be let to be one from time to time. His life partner might have to yell back in a fight, building strong boundaries and earning his respect. On a bad day an Aries can be self-centred, arrogant and stubborn, but he is also courageous, adventurous, and passionate. A relationship with this man can be fun and exciting, but it easily gets someone hurt if their partner doesn't recognize the energy needed for their relationship to last.

TRAITS

They are constant and tenacious but also very patient and understanding people. Some other Taurus traits include determination and a practical approach to life. Taurus likes owning as many material possessions as possible and having friends around at all times. They are attracted to wealthy and refined people. Furthermore, Taurus people hate fluctuations and conflict. They try to stay away from situations that are insecure or demand for quick action. It is quite easy to discuss with Taurus, as they are friendly and entertaining human beings. The planet Venus rules over beauty, creation and artistic endeavours. Being an earth sign, Taurus is authentic, wholesome and welcoming. This zodiac sign is ruled by the second house which represents personal possessions and all things that someone values. An authentic Taurus knows how to play his stubbornness in achieving their goals. Practical and well-grounded, Taurus is the sign that harvests the fruits of labour. They feel the need to always be surrounded by love and beauty, turned to the material world, hedonism, and physical pleasures. Taurus are sensual and tactile, considering touch and taste the most important of all senses. Stable and conservative, this is one of the most reliable signs of the zodiac, ready to endure and stick to their choices until they reach the point of personal satisfaction. The ruler of Taurus is Venus, the planet of love, attraction, beauty, satisfaction, creativity and gratitude. This tender nature will make Taurus an excellent cook, gardener, lover, and artist. They are loyal and don't like sudden changes, criticism or the chase of guilt people are often prone to, being somewhat dependable on other people and emotions they seem to be unable to let go of. Still, no matter their potential emotional challenge, these individuals have the ability to bring a practical voice of reason in any chaotic and unhealthy situation Taurus has the ability to see things from a grounded, practical and realistic perspective. They find it easy to make money and stay on same projects for years, or until they are completed. What we often see as stubbornness can be interpreted as commitment, and their ability to complete tasks whatever it takes is uncanny. This makes them excellent employees, great long-term friends and partners, always being there for people they love. Earthly note makes them overprotective, conservative, or materialistic at times, with views of the world founded on their love of money and wealth.

POSITIVE TRAITS

Imagine a persistent, pragmatic and loyal individual. The biggest strength of a Taurus is represented by the fact they are down to earth persons with a sensible but objective outlook on life. Some other Taurus qualities include dependability, affection and trustworthiness. These people are not only very ambitious but they also like to be those people who finish what they start no matter how many hardships they encounter on their way. A successful Taurus knows how to make use of their diplomacy and resourcefulness in order to move things in the direction they want them to move.

NEGATIVE TRAITS

Learning how to see beyond personal interests and to try to put that stubbornness to work in benefit of those around him. They are prejudiced and self indulgent. Sometimes they incline to dwell in past behaviours and are also very materialistic. Taurus weaknesses include laziness and indecisiveness. But the one weakness most Taurus fight against is that possessiveness they have in their approach to life. Taurus individuals can make their life simpler if they stop being so resentful and stop worrying and remembering anything anyone has ever done to them.

HEALTH

Health has always presented great interest for Taurus people. They tend to worry for any little scratch and dread even the thought of getting sick. Although they do acknowledge the need to keep their minds and bodies healthy and that they should to let worries for real and not imaginary situations, they don't always follow this. The Taurus zodiac sign rules the area of the mouth, neck, throat. This implies that these people are prone to suffering from frequent episodes of sore throat and other ailments related to these areas. Their lifestyle can trigger some stress related issues that could affect their sensible organs so they should focus their prevention methods here.

JOB

agriculture, banking, art, and anything that involves culinary skills, administrative jobs, trade and craftsmen, farmers and horticulturists, beekeepers, agriculturists and animal breeders. Or perfumers, cooks, singers, and composers. The whole sector of construction workers, site managers, architects, and engineers, contractors, various craftsmen, real estate brokers

LOVE

Sensual and committed lovers, Taurus people find it easy to express their feelings. They prefer to settle into serious relationships, rather than date around, so they do consider it a big accomplishment when the stars align and this happens. Taurus people are enticed by creative and fun people whom can challenge and excite them and whom they can spoil and protect. One can obtain the heart of the Taurus lover by maintaining their individuality and a degree of independence whilst keeping all eyes on them. Remember to offer them space from time to time and you will be rewarded. When single, these natives don't seem to mind solitude as they find it easier to delight on the pleasures of life on their own, without having to worry about making their partner feel loved and protected. Taurus in a couple is relaxed, enthusiastic and romantic but can also exhibit some fixed ideas and may find it sometimes hard to adapt to sudden changes.

COMPATIBILITY

Most Taurus people are attracted to the other two earth signs: Virgo and Capricorn. All these three signs are known for their pragmatism and loyalty and their compatibility is well known. With Virgoans they share the same realism and resourcefulness, while the ambition of Capricorns will always represent a role model for them. In love, Taurus is in a permanent search for an unpredictable and mysterious companion who can keep his interest alive. The relationship they develop with a Scorpio offers this kind of magnetic energy. However, they don't really enjoy taking many risks, thus they will contemplate changes a while, something that is rather difficult to take for the impatient Scorpio. On the contrary, Taurus people seem to be least compatible with Aries because of their opposing views on many aspects of life. Also, the inflexibility and stubbornness of Aries doesn't really go well with the calm and spirituality of Taurus.

FAMILY LIFE

Honouring and protecting their family plays the leading role in the life of Taurus. These natives are very loyal and affectionate. They are known to make great parents. Taurus children are sensitive and calm but they can also throw some tantrums that everyone will remember. It's all in their mood, however there are easy to communicate with. Taurus teenagers storm through their rebellious phase. They will not want to accept authority or even simple advice. But it's only a phase, they will come to their senses quite quick. The Taurus individual is dependent of family and the world seems to revolve around these traditional values.

FRIENDSHIP

Taurus people make excellent friends because they are always there for the persons they care for. These are one of the most enthusiastic and caring friends someone can have. They can be the best party partners but also the most understanding shoulder to cry on. Friends are like family and nothing seems to change that for them. They want to share their lavish lifestyle with their friends. Taurus people tend to form friendships at a young age and then stick to these familiar faces. They are not the most sociable people but they do know how to be great company.

WOMEN

The Taurus women are elegant and complex. They are refined and determined on the surface but calm, traditional and sensible underneath. They set their goals early in life and then elegantly fight to have them accomplished. These ladies are apparently sociable and friendly but it is actually very hard to win their trust and respect. They are down to earth and hard working but can also be witty and entertaining when in the right company.

MEN

The Taurus men are traditional and practical. They know exactly what they want and which are the means to get it. Most of them want to live wealthy lives and enjoy all the pleasures on human kind. They are determined and persistent only when it comes to their own desires but they can also be quite affectionate and romantic when they find someone to whom they feel attracted to. Deep inside, they seek for calm and creating a stable routine in their lives.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

If you want to seduce a Taurus woman you will need to appeal to her sense of romance. Taurus women want to be courted and slowly seduced, even when they have already decided to enter a relationship with someone. They need things to move slowly, and will rarely jump into a sexual bond quickly and without thinking long and hard about her choices. A Taurus woman longs for true love and security. It is very unlikely that she will give into her desires and instincts quickly, and if someone wishes to have her heart, they will have to spend a lot of time and energy into the game of winning her over, making her feel comfortable. Once she falls in love she becomes affectionate, intimate, close and loyal, standing by her partner for as long as he is faithful to her. She has an eye for beautiful things and appreciates simplicity of fine things in life, so the way to approach her is through enjoyable shared moments, respect for privacy, fine food and a gentle touch. This is a woman who doesn't like to feel rushed when dating and needs to have her time. Once she feels comfortable and secure with someone, she will happily and quickly give her heart without holding back.

ATTRACTING MEN

If you are in search for a strong, loyal and generous man, Taurus is the person you are looking for. He is trustworthy, patient and tender when in love, always in search for a returned emotion. He will not pick on subtle hints and suggestive looks from those who flirt with him, being a bit slow on the uptake as if waiting for someone to ask them out. He dislikes artificiality of any kind, and values conversations filled with genuine statements, especially when it comes to compliments and love declarations. A Taurus man needs time to build trust and anyone on a chase for his heart needs to take the time earning it. As a person of very few words, he will seem impossible to penetrate at times, as if nothing can touch him. An invitation for a delicious home-cooked meal is always a safe bet when dating this man, as well as choosing a place that is comfortable and cozy, rather than popular or modern. Turned to nature and common thinking, he will see sex as something that comes when the time is right, rarely puts any pressure on his partner and feels like it is something to be enjoyed, not so much something to crave for. A part of his fixed, static character is the potential inability to forgive betrayal, and he needs to feel truly safe to settle down with one partner for good.

TRAITS
They are cerebral, charming and warm hearted. Some other Gemini traits include great communication skills, friendliness and resourcefulness. Geminis love to have great variety in their lives and to travel a lot. They are fascinated by sociable and communicative people. On the contrary, people born in Gemini despise boredom and loneliness. They avoid routine and anything that has to do with predictability. It is quite easy to deal with a Gemini, as they are very talkative and energetic, practically open books at all times. Being ruled by planet Mercury makes them restless and changeable. Being an air sign, Gemini is moving, intellectual and spiritual. This zodiac sign is ruled by the third house which represents communication, interactions and the surrounding environment. A genuine Gemini enjoys and takes advantage of all situations where they can freely express their opinions. Expressive and quick-witted, Gemini represents two different personalities in one and you will never be sure which one you will face. They are sociable, communicative and ready for fun, with a tendency to suddenly get serious, thoughtful and restless. They are fascinated with the world itself, extremely curious, with a constant feeling that there is not enough time to experience everything they want to see. Gemini's changeable and open mind makes them excellent artists, especially writers and journalists, and their skills and flexibility make them shine in trade, driving and team sports. This is a versatile, inquisitive, fun loving sign, born with a wish to experience everything there is out there, in the world. This makes their character inspiring, and never boring.

POSITIVE TRAITS
Gemini is a clever and adaptable individual. The most important strength of Gemini is represented by the fact they are usually vivacious and optimistic. Some other Gemini qualities include compassion and creativity. They are not only extremely talkative but also warm hearted and dependable when they are genuinely interested in someone. A victorious Gemini knows how to make use of their communication skills and thirst of knowledge to be successful in life.

NEGATIVE TRAITS
Learning when to focus and not be so easily distracted, even by the smallest thing, is one thing Gemini needs to do. They are easily irritable and have moments when they are so self absorbed that it's like there is no one else in the whole world but them. They are oriented towards starting more projects they can manage and when they get caught up their solution is to abandon them one at a time. Gemini weaknesses include hastiness and selfishness. But the one weakness most Gemini display is their need for manipulation and for feeling they are above other people. Gemini individuals can make their life better if they stop stretching the truth and stop acting like they really know what they're talking about all the time.

HEALTH

Their general health presents quite an interest to Gemini and they are known in the zodiac for their glow of health, probably maintained by the fact they are in general active individuals. They most certainly do not worry for every little scratch. They take what life gives them and face any consequence of their lifestyle bravely. Gemini zodiac sign rules the shoulders, arms, hands and lungs. This means that these people are susceptible to suffer from small accidents involving the upper limbs and the collarbones. Their lifestyle can trigger some unwanted issues that will localize to their sensible organs and they most certainly should avoid smoking.

JOBS

traders, inventors, writers, orators, preachers and lawyers, author, journalist, spokesperson, copywriter, dealer, tv and radio presenter, interpreter, bookseller, huckster, healer, surgeon, stand-up comedian, actor, magician, illusionist, cheat, thief, pickpocket, fraud, mediators of all kind, acrobat, any sort of intermediary, casino dealer, professional gambler, stuntman, broker, agent, salesman, PR person, and diplomat.

LOVE

Versatile and ingenious partners, Gemini people have a special way with words so you are never short of something charming from them. They like to discover new people and learn about someone's life and at times, they may seem as if their whole universe gravitates around one person. However, they get easily bored and slip away before you know it. Gemini are attracted to active and unpredictable people who can keep them guessing and, most importantly, who are able to keep up with their energy. One can conquer the heart of the tempestuous Gemini love by having an interesting personality and knowing how to reveal themselves step by step. Don't forget about also needing to accept their eccentricities. When single, they don't act any different from when they are in a relationship and they seem to put no restrictions forward. They truly aim to live their life at its fullest.

COMPATIBILITY

The complex and charming Gemini people are attracted to optimistic and creative people and it seems that Libra and Aquarius natives are amongst their favourites. With Libras they share the same thirst for using knowledge to help others, while Aquarians will always entice them for their relaxed way of approaching life. When it comes to passionate love that can help build the foundation of a fulfilling life, Gemini is compatible with Sagittarius. These people can help them achieve their potential and temper their selfishness. On the other hand, Gemini people seem to be least compatible with Taurus as they seem to clash on various aspects of life. Also Taurus' calm nature makes Gemini fixate on small gestures and feel as if they are stuck.

FAMILY LIFE

Creating a family comes after their own accomplishments for the enthusiastic Gemini. These natives will always be children at heart and they are not very keen to accommodate their own family. The Gemini individual is smart and creative therefore does not put a high price on traditional values and instead tries to build his own principles. Gemini children are full of imagination and extremely sociable and talkative. On the other hand, Gemini teenagers are adventurous and hard to manage and they sometimes need help to overcome the difficult phases. In a nutshell, Gemini don't feel any need to sacrifice their own desires in order to go on the family path but as soon as love strikes them, they are sure to follow.

FRIENDSHIP

As they are true social butterflies, every moment with a Gemini friend is an adventure and you are never likely to get bored. When it comes to supporting their friends, they sometimes go the extra mile but there might as well be other times in which they are needed, but they kind of disappear from the radar. Their long-term attitude towards those they surround themselves with, largely depends on how connected they feel to the person in question. These are one of the most talkative and humorous friends someone can have. They keep their friends separate from family although they treat them like one and you may also find that they are more than generous with the former. Gemini people are extremely friendly and can even befriend someone they've just met and act like they've known them for their entire lives.

WOMEN

The Gemini women are optimistic and enthusiastic beings. They are just as talkative as all Gemini but they also know when to behave themselves. They can be very composed and elegant when needed. They love to engage in activities that involve many people as they are so open minded and tolerant. They have a vivacious personality and are very friendly and self assured.

MEN

The Gemini men are masters of the words, both in their personal and professional lives. They know exactly what to say and what to do in any social context. However, they are quite sensible on the inside and not very self confident, despite the appearances. They need the support and recognition of others in order to continue their endeavours. They are also very stubborn and hard to manage when it comes to their own opinions. They view life as a permanent game and entertainment.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

If you want to attract a Gemini woman, you will have to be able to keep up with her dual nature. She can be passionate and gentle one moment, and aloof and distant the next. This is a result of her natural born tendency to stay safe and on a distance from other people, prepared to run off into a carefree love story that waits for her just around the corner. This is an enthusiastic, witty, intellectual and soft spoken woman, while at the same time extremely open-minded and always ready to meet someone new. Although a Gemini woman is usually not very shy, getting in a serious and committed relationship will take time and a lot of patience. However, once she finds a man who can satisfy her sexual and intellectual desires, this woman will be the one to suggest starting a family, marriage, and growing old together, although this might happen in an unusual way. She is impressed by partners who teach her new things and have insights that she sees and ingenious. Her sex life is a story to be told, but only to those who are ready to listen, usually the one specific person she finally managed to build true intimacy with.

ATTRACTING MEN

A Gemini man is enthusiastic and full of life, never disappointing with dull moments. He is adventurous and humorous, and this makes him the perfect partner if a person is energetic and dynamic, in search for some laughter and fun. Gemini men are naturally chatty and flirtatious, and you can meet them at public gatherings, conferences, and traffic jams. Their personality is marked by dualism, making them inconsistent but clever, and amazingly attractive to others. This man is impossible to cling to, and need a partner who gives him enough freedom and space, followed by mental stimulation and variety. To win his heart, one has to be fun, stimulating, adventurous, laughing at his jokes and ready to learn from him day after day. As if opposed to his eloquent nature, this isn't a man ready to discuss emotions that much, and will prefer if they are shown rather than spoken of. Sex with a Gemini man can be a wonderful experience, but if his partner is unwilling to experiment, he will get bored. As in all things in life, he needs new experiences, verbal contact, and freedom of expression when it comes to sexual relationships.

Other Cancer traits for those born between June 21 and July 22 include creativity and a great enterprise spirit. Cancerians appreciate staying at home and whenever they have the chance to peep in the lives of others. They are enticed by creative and balanced persons. On the other hand, those born under Cancer loathe boredom and being criticized. They try to bypass any situation where they might be faced with aggressiveness. It is quite difficult to create a connection with a Cancer, as they are very selective with the persons they surround themselves with, and those special places are usually invitation only. The Moon has a great influence on their feelings and the on how moody they are. Being a water sign, Cancer is in a permanent movement and transformation and can also take many shapes. This zodiac sign is ruled by the fourth house which is the symbol of family, stability and familiar places. A natural Cancer loves to take personal time to relax. Deeply intuitive and sentimental, Cancer can be one of the most challenging zodiac signs to get to know. They are very emotional and sensitive, and care deeply about matters of the family and their home. Cancer is sympathetic and attached to people they keep close. Those born with their Sun in Cancer are very loyal and able to empathize with other people's pain and suffering. Lack of patience or even love will manifest through mood swings later in life, and even selfishness, self-pity or manipulation. They are quick to help others, just as they are quick to avoid conflict, and rarely benefit from close combat of any kind, always choosing to hit someone stronger, bigger, or more powerful than they imagined. When at peace with their life choices, Cancer representatives will be happy and content to be surrounded by a loving family and harmony in their home.

POSITIVE TRAITS

The ambassadors of Cancer are protective and empathic; these people are also tenacious and keep finding the most innovative ways to help others. Their biggest strength is represented by the fact they are very imaginative and possess many hidden talents waiting to be unravelled in front of the right persons. Some other Cancer qualities include a great sense of humorous and putting a high price on values like fidelity and trust. Those born under the Cancer zodiac sign are also great listeners with an amazing memory. A victorious Cancer knows how to make use of their qualities to make themselves a great company and also to determine others act in the direction they want them to.

NEGATIVE TRAITS

Understanding that they need to stop sidestepping obstacles and start dealing with them the mature and brave way is one thing Cancer people have to do. They are manipulative and contradictory at times. They don't have enough self confidence and this can damage many aspects of their lives and prevent them from enjoying life at its fullest. They are sometimes overly sensitive and way too insecure. Cancer weaknesses include selfishness and impulsivity. But the biggest of them all is that they sometimes dwell on imaginary insults and comply to this state of insecurity and low self-esteem. Cancer individuals can make their life easier if they accept people as they are and stop trying to change or manipulate them by any means.

HEALTH

The way they feel, both emotionally and physically has always been one main topic of discussion for Cancer people. Maybe sometimes too serious, they are quite hypochondriac and tend to worry even for the smallest things. Those who have some specialist knowledge, are often inclined to see the worst in everything. The Cancer zodiac sign rules the breasts, chest muscles, stomach and pancreas. This means that these people seem to be having a higher risk of suffering from respiratory problems and other ailments concerning these areas. The lungs are in general a problem area for most Cancerians and the best thing to do is to protect them through outdoor exercise and long walks in fresh air.

JOB

nurses, housekeepers, gardeners, politicians and decorators, store manager, salesperson, manager, nanny, elderly care, mother, performing musician, singer, housewife, midwife, paediatrician, cook, restaurant owner, historian, archaeologist, antiquarian, instrument builder, writer, actor, dancer, all kinds of kitchen and hotel staff, world traveller, sailors, fisheries, clairvoyant, clairsentient, medium, card reader, hand reader, psychologist, psychotherapist, helpline or palliative ward assistant. Laundry employees.

LOVE

One of the most romantic signs of the zodiac, Cancer people may not be always in tune with their emotions, however, when they are sure of what they feel, they do everything to show it. Cancerians are stimulated by imaginative and active people who can gift them unconditional love and support. They require constant reassurance so if that is on offer, they surely are buying. The moody Cancer lovers are easily offended so everyone needs to put on gloves when dealing with them. As much as they invest in a relationship as easily they can rebound from difficulties once hurt. They are stronger than they appear although it may sometimes take a lot of motivation from their part to start over. You can conquer the heart of Cancer if you are an enthusiastic and loyal lover whom can offer them unconditional stability and whom can challenge them intellectually.

COMPATIBILITY

The intelligent and sentimental Cancer is greatly attracted by two zodiac signs who display similar personality characteristics: Scorpio and Pisces. With Scorpios they share the same intuition and emotional sensitivity, while Pisces entices them with their creative spirits. In love, Cancer is in a constant search for someone who can understand their moody nature. They are compatible with a wide range of signs because when hit by Cupid's arrow, they abandon their pickiness and often adapt to suit the expectations of their partners. But there is also one sign who offers them stability and channels the best in them and that is Virgo. Opposite to this, Cancer people seem to be least compatible with Aquarius because of their opposing views and the fact that none will make any compromise, often, just to see how much the other resists before getting annoyed.

FAMILY LIFE

Protecting and being close to their family plays the leading role in the life of Cancer, as their are renowned to be the Nurturers. They make great career people but in the end their heart is where their family is. Although they dream of having their own family they are pretentious and only settle when they consider the time is right. Cancer children are overly sensible and moody but also ambitious and driven and should be appreciated for all they are doing. Cancer teenagers are more likely to throw childish tantrums over some "feelings" issue rather than rebel as difficult youngsters. But they do need to be supported and listened to a lot around this age. The Cancer individual is dependent of his family and the world seems to revolve around traditional values.

WOMEN

The Cancer women are emotional and passionate. These are the damsels in distress that don't need to be saved, not until they decide from what they need to be saved. Despite their fragile mindset, these women are ambitious and can turn into great leaders as they find the right motivation for them. They are intuitive, confident but also extremely self critical.

FRIENDSHIP

When it comes to supporting their friends, Cancer people go extra mile and take everything very serious. These are one of the most sensible and affectionate friends someone can have. But life with them is quite complicated. Not only they are very pretentious with the people they surround themselves with but they are also quite moody. However, once their affection is won, you sure have a loyal and dependable friend for life. Friends are treated like family. Cancerians are often socially shy, therefore need quite a lot of time to really befriend someone.

MEN

The Cancer men are charming and sociable. They make great first impressions as they know how to play their cards. But when you get to know them, their moodiness and possessiveness can be quite a handful. However they are resourcefulness, ambitious and seek to create a stable home. They are intuitive and energetic and everyone can count on them for support.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

Cancer personality can be quite complicated, but deep inside they are home-loving and conservative people. A Cancer woman is vulnerable, emotional, and not likely to quickly fall in love. Once her trust is earned, she will be passionate and loyal. In order to seduce her, one has to be proactive and make the first move, respecting her need to be treated like a lady. She is not the right choice for someone in search for a one-night stand, and needs more from her partner than just casual encounters. Romantic and ready to love, this woman needs a romantic partner who believes in love, while also in tune with her unspoken feelings. Despite her cautious nature, a Cancer woman is deeply erotic and when feeling secure to show her true personality and emotions, they will be expressed through an incredible sex life. To have lasting relationship with a Cancer woman, she needs someone faithful, respectful and honest, for doesn't forget betrayal and becomes very rigid and unpredictable when hurt.

ATTRACTING MEN

A Cancer man is conservative just enough to know that initiative is important, but often fails to show it before he feels safe to do so. His partners need to make the first move, but still doing it subtly to let him still feel like he is leading the way. This is a complex individual, very sensitive, shy and overly protective of his loved ones. When he prefers women, he will subconsciously search for the ideal wife and mother. A Cancer man is an emotional person, who loves to take care of other people. He wants to feel needed, and protective, receiving a lot of attention from his partner through kind words and subtle concerns and compliments to make his day. Although he can be moody, pessimistic and clingy, he is a creative and generous partner in search for someone to share a life with.

Leos enjoy like achieving different things every day and also taking their time off to relax and enjoy solitude. They are captivated by wealthy and powerful people. On the contrary, Leo people dislike loosing of course but also having to work with coward people. It is quite easy to discuss with Leo, as they are eager to show anyone who listens how amazing they are. The Sun makes act dynamic, regal and honourable. Being a fire sign, Leo is active, passionate, energetic and vital just like fire. This zodiac sign is ruled by the fifth house which represents children and the inheritance one leaves for the future. A real Leo loves to spend time engaging in any activity that involves a competition and where the chance to show how great they are at everything. Leo are natural born leaders. They are dramatic, creative, self-confident, dominant and extremely difficult to resist, able to achieve anything they want to in any area of life they commit to. There is a specific strength to a Leo and their 'king of the jungle' status. Leo often has many friends for they are generous and loyal. Self-confident and attractive, this is a Sun sign capable of uniting different groups of people and leading them as one towards a shared cause, and their healthy sense of humour makes collaboration with other people even easier.

POSITIVE TRAITS
Those born under this zodiac sign are honest, self motivated and warm hearted. HEALTH

Their general health has rarely presented a big interest for Leo people. They seem to be fearless and consider themselves immune to any health issue. They take what life gives them and face any consequence of their lifestyle bravely, even though when they are in the middle of a serious episode, they do complain. The Leo zodiac sign rules the heart, back and spine. These are the most sensitive areas for them and the areas likely to cause trouble in old age. This also suggests that these people are more likely to suffer from tension and stress related affections concerning the mentioned areas.

JOB

Actor, Politician, Entrepreneur, Education, Management, doctor, artist, patron of the arts, defence personnel, CEO of small and medium enterprise, lawyer, jeweller, head of state, general executive or manager, teacher, dealer, business man

LOVE

Energetic and passionate lovers, Leos enjoy dating rituals and often put all their imagination to play to impress their love interest. They also seek for the same level of attention and surely can only be with people who are as adventurous as them. You can also say that they take it as a personal challenge to impress their significant other and can be charming for several days in a row and then all of a sudden, change the mood to 180 degrees. They also find it very complicated to show their true feelings, and in order to really get to their souls, you need to dig deeper. Leo lovers are attracted to charming, energetic and ambitious people who can keep up with their agitated lifestyle. One can obtain the attention of Leo if they master how to show them how amazing they are but in the same time temper and help them get a grip of reality. The single Leo prefers to focus on his own life and lets others try to conquer him.

COMPATIBILITY

For Leo it is very important what vibe the person next to them gives so naturally they are attracted to the other two fire signs: Aries and Sagittarius. With Aries they share the same impulsivity and desire for action while Sagittarians will always attract them with their apparent calm but achieving nature. In love, Leo is in a constant search for an active and visionary partner to expand their horizon but who can also understand their desires. The best sign to offer them this kind of energy is Aquarius. Although they are the opposite sign, it seems that this sort of union manages to remove negative elements from the lives of both partners. The humanitarian nature of Aquarius is put to great use by the planning and ambition of Leo. On the other hand, Leo people seem to be least compatible with Cancerians because although the relationship may be working just fine in good times, with both partners very entertaining and witty, in times of pressure, their conflicting reactions collide.

FAMILY LIFE

Protecting their family and providing for it are the two leading roles the Leo is aware of having. Despite being so ambitious and driven they are devoted partners and loving parents. They may raise their children in the same competitive spirit as they were raised. Leo children are determined and enthusiastic although sometimes their ego explodes and no one can handle their tantrums. In Leo teenagers, the feared tantrums are replaced with rebellious phases that are also quite hard to manage even by the most understanding parent. However, most Leos keep their life direction straight towards the goals they settle. These natives don't feel the need to please, or sacrifice for others but they somehow end up doing so for their own children.

FRIENDSHIP

Life around the Leo friend is all about winning and don't feel offended if they take your friendship to that level too. Don't worry, with their closest friends they do know how to display some fair play. These are one of the most ambitious and competitive friends someone can have. When it comes to supporting their friends they go the extra mile but only if that is in their benefit too. They keep friends separate from family and they are likely to have only a few close friends although they seem to be very sociable and communicative with new people. Leo people tend to form friendships at a young age with people who have similar interests to their own.

WOMEN

The Leo women are feminine and outgoing. Enthusiastic and witty, they make a great company. They are sometimes quite demonstrative and arrogant but the rest of the time they are dependable and tolerant. These women are as hot tempered as the men in their sign but unlike the last, Miss Leo knows where to put some boundaries and moderate her impulses. This is the kind of control the Leo lacks of and it exactly what make the Lady Leo be so special and admired.

MEN

The Leo men are strong, ambitious and stubborn. Their force is attractive but in the same time it's really hard to put up with their complex behaviour. They have their own opinions and they stick to them no matter what. They are sociable and wealthy. A Leo will always find it hard to express his emotions and this might lead to some frustrations adding up. They are the natural born leaders who need support and affection from those around them in order to live up to their potential.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

Leo women are very warm-hearted and driven by the desire to be loved and admired, and as all people born under the Leo zodiac sign, love to be in the limelight. To seduce her, one has to treat her well, respect her, compliment her and see her fit to live a luxurious lifestyle she deserves. She appreciates romantic partners and will expect to be the centre of someone's world, giving the person she loves the same royal treatment. Dating a Leo woman requires acceptance of her flaws and admiration for her qualities. She doesn't like competing for love and wants to have clarity on her role in her partner's life. Leo will always enjoy a visit to a theatre, an art museum or a fancy restaurant. She wants to be showered with flowers and gifts, but as grandiose displays of affection rather than an expensive routine of her partner. She can be a bit domineering and needs to stay in control of her own life. If her partner holds her as valued and queen-like as she is, there is infinite warmth, care, and attention in her heart to respond.

ATTRACTING MEN

A Leo man wants to be treated like a king in their intimate relationship and this is not their narcissistic characteristic, but a true inner need that all people with deep self-respect have to feel. Plans with him are always big and dramatic, and showering with admiration, devotion and attention come really natural both ways. This is a man who gives many gifts when they are in love, often expensive and posing as a statement of his effort. Any partner that wants to stay with him has to prove that they are worthy of royal treatment and ready to give enough of it back. A Leo man will love compliments, and although he appears confident, he needs a lot of praise to start feeling safe around their loved one too. However romantic and passionate, this man will rarely choose a woman that doesn't "go well" with his appearance, or doesn't make him look good in the eyes of specific groups in the outer world. He is known to easily take the roll of an eternal bachelor, always on the hunt and celebrating love and life. He will put himself in the centre of attention, and his partner could compete with a number of admirers, but their relationship is not in danger for as long as he is adored the way he loves to be. When treated right, he will stick around forever.

TRAITS
They are respectful, analytical and have a great sense of duty. Some other Virgo traits include down to earthiness, meticulousness, trustworthiness and a great sense of duty. Virgos like having everything orderly around and taking their time off to disconnect and rediscover themselves. They are attracted to people that are creative but neat just like themselves. Furthermore, people born in Virgo despise mediocrity and disorder. They try to stay away from avoid lazy and showy people. It is quite easy to communicate with an Virgo, as long as you are a trustworthy and balanced person. The planet Mercury influences them to act rational and balanced. Being an earth sign, Virgo is stable, fertile and loyal. Being ruled by the sixth house, the symbol of efficiency and tasks accents once again how organized and neat this zodiac sign is. An authentic Virgo enjoys situations where they can show their focus and determination and work alongside intelligent people. Virgos are always paying attention to the smallest details and their deep sense of humanity makes them one of the most careful signs of the zodiac. Their methodical approach to life ensures that nothing is left to chance, and although they are often tender, their heart might be closed for the outer world. This is a sign often misunderstood, not because they lack the ability to express, but because they won't accept their feelings as valid, true, or even relevant when opposed to reason. The symbolism behind the name speaks well of their nature, born with a feeling they are experiencing everything for the first time. Virgo prefers conservative, well-organized things and a lot of practicality in their everyday life. These individuals have an organized life, and even when they let go to chaos, their goals and dreams still have strictly defined borders in their mind. Constantly worried that they missed a detail that will be impossible to fix, they can get stuck in details, becoming overly critical and concerned about matters that nobody else seems to care much about.

POSITIVE TRAITS
Those born under the Virgo star sign are sharp minded, optimistic and focused. Their biggest strength is represented by the fact they seem to be having a reasonable solution to every problem they encounter. Some other Virgo qualities include productive realism and cautiousness. These people are not only very resourceful but they also thoroughly think each and every move and avoid taking any unnecessary risks. A thriving Virgo knows how to make use of their openness to novelty and of their patience and consideration to others.

NEGATIVE TRAITS
One of the things Virgos need to learn is to relax a little bit and stop being so overly critic and perfectionists. They are irritable and sceptic when others try to make up their mind in a certain direction. They are the worriers of the zodiac, they solemnly believe that if something is to go wrong it will sure do. Virgo weaknesses include a grain of resentment as they rarely forget and forgive. Other than that, they are sometimes so undecided they literally have no clue where to head at. But the one weakness most Virgo display is intolerance. They disagree with all the vices of others although they do forget to analyse their own. Virgo individuals can make their life simpler if they stop being so anxious and worrisome. They tend to over think even the smallest problems and this attitude is taking all the unpredictable and fun out of their lives.

HEALTH

Virgo people are one of the zodiac signs with the most interest in their health, whether or not they are overly concerned with what they eat and how healthy they are. They are also often interested in the way their bodies work and will tend to read about these processes online. They are rather hypochondriac and tend to worry even for the smallest things although they forget their worries rapidly after. They will ask others for advice but not necessarily follow through. The Virgo zodiac sign rules the abdomen, intestines, liver and corresponding arteries. This suggests that these people are prone to suffer from ailments concerning the above areas but also may suffer from slight malnutrition and issues with their nervous systems.

JOB

doctors, nurses or psychologists, research, scholar, analyst, statistician, dental technician, watchmaker: precision mechanic, gemstone setter, accountant, biochemist, internist, urologists, lab assistants, pharmacist, pharmacy assistant, nutritionist, dietician, bacteriologist, psychologist, caregiver, personal assistant, homeopath, economist.

LOVE

Some of the most affectionate partners, Virgos are loyal and dependable. In time, they are the ones to leave passion aside in order to build a dependable and trustworthy relationship. They find it complicated to express their feelings at times, especially when they are preoccupied by more realistic situations. They may not be those with whom you can party all the time but they are sure those with whom you want to settle. Virgo lovers are easily enticed by emotional people to whom they can offer support and guidance. At first, this may sound like a good challenge to them but in time, they are expecting results from those they are helping. One can conquer the attention of Virgo by being just as honest and supportive. They often seek for family people. When single, these natives are focused on all the other aspects of life and are never in a rush to commit if they don't feel it is right.

COMPATIBILITY

Comfortable in their own skin and objective, Virgo people are attracted to the other two earth signs: Taurus and Capricorn. With Taurus they share the same realism and resourcefulness, while Capricorns will always entice the critical Virgo with their ambition and determination to succeed. In love, Virgo is in a permanent search for someone to nurture, help grow and to whom they can give everything they have. They manage to have a long term relationship with Pisces and both natives seem to find peace at home. Pisces may also help Virgo break away from some traditionalism they may be harbouring and it seems that since both are very adaptable, they are progressing very fast in whatever they decide to do together. On the contrary, Virgo people seem to be least compatible with Leos because of the impulsive nature of the latter and of the fact that Virgo wishes to have the last word and impose some decisions.

FAMILY LIFE

Honouring their family plays one leading role in the life of Virgo. They aim to create their own family some day but they don't hurry in this commitment until they consider the time is right. Then they prove to be caring and understanding parents. Virgo children are affectionate and obedient. They even impose respect amongst their peers due to their mannered behaviour. Virgo teenagers are sure to go through a stage where their opinions are the only ones valid but they act very rebellious about it. Virgo individual is dependent of his partner & children and the world seems to revolve around these traditional values.

FRIENDSHIP

Once you obtain the friendship and respect of Virgo you sure have a shoulder to cry on but also a person to wake you up and show you the truth. They are not very keen on supporting others with exaggerated hopes and goals but they do want to help by giving well-meant advice most times. These are one of the most reliable and honest friends someone can have. They are very pretentious, therefore not very sociable but they do know how to be a pleasant company for everyone. They sometimes tend to befriend people that are more enthusiastic and sociable than themselves and don't feel shadowed by more outgoing people.

WOMEN

The Virgo women are neat and refined. They love keeping everything in perfect order, both in their lives and homes. They do leave the guard down and relax but this doesn't happen very often. Miss Virgo is shy and sensible but also very pretentious and critical when she gains the courage and starts to speak her mind. These women are set to live a quiet and traditional life and avoid anything too showy.

MEN

The Virgo men are dignified and stylish. They are highly observant and critical but underneath all that they are sensible men who crave for a stable and relaxed life. They believe that knowledge is power and they are also inquisitive individuals. They aim to gain their confidence through hard work and study. They are practical, down to earth people who are always ready to help someone in need.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

A Virgo personality is a mix of intelligence, attention to detail, common sense, and commitment, and a woman born with her in this sign is very smart, modest, and capable. Trying to seduce this woman can seem intimidating at first, for she is likely to put on a facade of indifference. However, she is not cold but practical, realistic and cautious when it comes to starting new relationships. She will never simply give herself to someone without assessing their character and emotions shared with her from the beginning. She doesn't, under no circumstances, fall under a category of spoiled, materialistic women. As all Earth signs she will enjoy the material world and see any gift she gets as a blessing, but still truly enjoy things only when they are extremely practical and easy to use, digest, or when in need of fixing. Attracted to intelligent but distant personalities, a Virgo woman has a strong capacity to love, but chooses to wait for sharing emotions until she is ready. Private and defensive, this is someone who needs her defence mechanisms respected but still broken by the right partner.

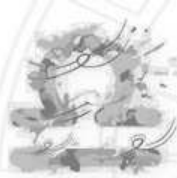

ATTRACTING MEN

To seduce a Virgo man, one must respect his need for cleanliness and order. In most cases he enters romance slowly, carefully, and likes to take his time getting to know a person before starting anything serious. When he receives information on what to expect, his partner has to be sure to deliver nothing less. A Virgo man might put up a cool front, but don't let him fool you. He has deep and sensual needs, and only if his partner is patient enough, able to withstand his tendency to over analyse everything, he will eventually warm up. It takes obvious and hard work to sweep a Virgo man off his feet. He needs a partner to inspire, remind him of his own talents, and will often find such a person in platonic and completely irrational spheres. In search for someone honest, patient and tidy, he is always ready to settle down with the right person for a very long time.

TRAITS

They are charming, relaxed and great with words. Other Libra traits for those born between September 23 and October 22 include patience and reliability. Libras like to be cared for in exchange for their selflessness and also love to delight with sweets from time to time. They are drawn towards people that are as stable and relaxed in their own lives as they are. On the contrary, Libra people dislike mediocrity and not being listened to. They try to bypass any situations in which they would be in doubt and situations when they have to deal with vain and shallow people. It is quite easy to communicate with a Libra, as they are genuinely opened and interested persons. The planet Venus has a great influence on their stability, love for beauty and loyal spirit. Being an air sign, Libra is volatile, full of knowledge and in continuous movement, giving these individuals constant mental stimuli, strong intellect and a keen mind. They will be inspired by good books, insurmountable discussions and people who have a lot to say. Each Libra representative has to be careful when talking to other people, for when they are forced to decide about something that is coming their way, or to choose sides, they suddenly realize that they might be in the wrong place and surrounded by wrong people. No partner should make them forget that they have their own opinion. This zodiac sign is ruled by the seventh house which is the symbol of selflessness and care for others. A true Libra is an introspective being and enjoys meditation and relaxation techniques. People born under the sign of Libra are peaceful, fair, and they hate being alone. Partnership is very important for them, as their mirror and someone giving them the ability to be the mirror themselves. These individuals are fascinated by balance and symmetry, they are in a constant chase for justice and equality, realizing through life that the only thing that should be truly important to themselves in their own inner core of personality. This is someone ready to do nearly anything to avoid conflict, keeping the peace whenever possible Planet ruling the sign of Libra is Venus, making these people great lovers but also fond of expensive, material things. Their lives need to be enriched by music, art, and beautiful places they get a chance to visit.

POSITIVE TRAITS

These people are charming and seem to be optimistic all the time. The biggest strength of a Libra is represented by the fact that not only they find the right solution in no time, but it is also the solution that takes in consideration everyone involved. Some other Libra qualities are pleasance and their spirit of innovation. These people are very progressive and focused and although they are not so driven to save the world, they sure make an impact on the lives of the people around them. A successful Libra knows how to make use of their originality and hard work to complete any task with an incredible calm as they always seem to find a practical solution to make their work faster and easier.

NEGATIVE TRAITS

One of the things Libra need to understand is that they sometimes need to take time for themselves and stop worrying about the problems of others. They are born perfectionists and this can damage their self esteem, unless they fall in the other extreme and become vain and sarcastic. Sometimes they tend to act superficial and skeptic when others come with ideas or plans they haven't thought of. Libra weaknesses include timidity and over calculation. Their life can turn into a long routine unless they take some risks and have some fun. Despite their fame of being the most understanding and considerate people, they are sometimes intolerant, fastidious and over controlling. Libra individuals can make their life better if they learn to not be so tolerant and acceptable with everyone as some people might disappoint them on the way. Not everyone carries the best intentions.

HEALTH

Health has always been a serious matter for Libra people, even as children, these natives tend to take greater care for themselves, than their peers. They acknowledge the need to keep their minds and bodies healthy and prefer to let worries for real and not imaginary situations. The Libra zodiac sign rules the kidneys, bladder and adrenal glands. This means that these people are inclined to suffer from ailments concerning these organs more than others.

JOB

diplomat, lawyer, judge, teacher, actor, photographer, photo model, movement therapist, hairdresser, manicurist, pedicurist, fashion designer, masseur, interior decorator, dance ballerina, choreographer, seller of luxury items, window dresser, beautician, makeup specialist, musician, conductor, philologist, writer, journalist, web designer, HR, psychologist, artist, doctor (specialist in bladder and kidney or skin diseases, plastic surgeon)

LOVE

The dependable and romantic Libras seek for a lifetime partner to whom they can commit and with whom they can build an accomplished relationship. They are stimulated by enthusiastic and imaginative people but they couldn't respect anyone else more than those who keep their feet on the ground. Libra lovers remain young at heart and mind and carry on being just as affectionate as they were the very first day. By showing you are trustworthy and by remaining constant, you are sure to conquer their hearts. A single Libra is completely focused on their personal development and is in no way in a hurry to enter a relationship if they don't feel it's the right thing to do. When in a couple and decided to commit you can rest assured they will do it for the long run.

FAMILY LIFE

Creating a family plays an important role in the life of Libra. These natives are known to function better in partnerships; therefore this is sure to apply to them wanting a family of their own. They make loving and understanding parents. Libra children are obedient and composed. They always seem a lot older because of their mature behaviour. Libra teenagers don't really go through a stormy rebellion although they do develop opinions of their own and are eager to share them to others. The Libra individual is dependent of his partner and children and the world seems to revolve around these traditional values.

WOMEN

The Libra women are refined and attractive. They exert certain magnetism in their calm and composed behaviour. They are firm and straightforward but also very diplomatic. Underneath that studied appearance Miss Libra is sensible, naive and romantic. Her trustfulness might have her disappointed if she lets her guard down in front of the wrong persons. Libras want to live a harmonious and stable life.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

To seduce a Libra woman one has to be a good conversationalist and listener. She enjoys being taught about new things and enjoys talking about herself and her personal interests, just as much as she likes sinking deep into her partner's life. She is charming, intelligent, and finds solutions to problems that arise along the way with certain ease. Her partner needs to keep her interested and on her toes at first, making her question her own initiative and choices, while also straightforward and surprising enough. Being ruled by Venus a Libra woman has a natural tendency to have certain mood swings, but this won't make her any less just in her ways. Once she falls in love and shares a home with a partner, she will take care of them, make them look good, and keep their social life organized and well-adjusted to social norms they live in.

COMPATIBILITY

Social and well-behaved Libra people are attracted to the other two air signs: Gemini and Aquarius. These three signs combine wits, courage and a sense of stability as no other signs can. Naturally, any of these unions take advantage of what life has to offer and make the best, even out of the most treacherous situations. With Gemini they seem to share the same sense of cooperation and diplomacy, while Aquarians entice them with their ideas and the way they build their lives. Libra's compatibilities are straight forward, bring in curious and creative partners and throw away jealous and controlling people. Libras need confidence from their significant other but they also need someone who they can be proud with when in the company of other people. They may have a hard time with Scorpios as it seems that although they form a passionate union, their needs are most times contradictory so when it comes to long term relationships, sparks are quick to ignite.

FRIENDSHIP

Despite their calm and composed appearance, Libras know how to relax and have a good time when in the right company. These are one of the most reliable but also adventurous friends someone can have. They select their friends carefully but are quite happy when surrounded with people from all walks of life in social gatherings. When it comes to supporting their friends, they go well beyond their normal means. They are especially good at advice and pep talk although they don't shy away from the action part either. They tend to keep friends separate from family although they sometimes lose track of those boundaries when they encounter someone they are very enthusiastic about.

MEN

The Libra men are elegant and balanced. Complete gentlemen, these natives are trustworthy and dependable. They make great business partners but also family men. The only thing these natives should be careful about is putting the needs of others ahead of themselves too often. They are refined people whom search the beauty around them. They are calm but firm and win the respect and recognition of others through their entire behaviour.

ATTRACTING MEN

Libra men appreciate all that is beautiful and search for a partner to inspire them with their appearance. This might sound superficial, but the fact is they need mental and visual stimuli to make decision processes easier and push them into a serious relationship to begin with. Once they have decided to be with someone, they usually make serious, long-term bonds, enduring with ease through the hard times knowing they have already made the perfect choice to begin with. A Libra man wants to discuss everything with his partner, from daily matters to big shared endeavours in life. This is a man in search for a partner with strength of will and confidence, someone to guide the way when he feels lost or insecure. Once he finds the right person, he will do anything to make them happy, turning their attention solely to their partner and often forgetting himself in the process. This man is deeply romantic in his core and in search for true love to last him a lifetime.

TRAITS
 They are focused and passionate and love to live intensely. Some other Scorpio traits include being very opinionated and hard working. They appear to be most charming persons to everyone they come across with. Just like a true Scorpio, they are emotional, mysterious and sometimes even tolerant. Scorpios appreciate being listened to and traveling to far away places for long get-away. They are captivated by people who are as mysterious and complex as themselves. Furthermore, people born in Scorpio dislike mediocrity and being confronted with sudden change. They avoid situations where they can not feel in charge and control things. It is quite complicated to create a connection with a Scorpio, as they are reticent to opening their hearts to new people. Being ruled by Pluto makes them passionate and eager to pursue higher dreams. Being a water sign, Scorpio is deep, mysterious and in a continuous change. Scorpio-born are passionate and assertive people. They are determined and decisive, and will research until they find out the truth. Scorpio is a great leader, always aware of the situation and also features prominently in resourcefulness. Scorpio is a Water sign and lives to experience and express emotions. Although emotions are very important for Scorpio, they manifest them differently than other water signs. In any case, you can be sure that the Scorpio will keep your secrets, whatever they may be. Scorpios are known by their calm and cool behaviour, and by their mysterious appearance. People often say that Scorpio-born are fierce, probably because they understand very well the rules of the universe. Some Scorpio-born can look older than they actually are. They are excellent leaders because they are very dedicated to what they do. Scorpios hate dishonesty and they can be very jealous and suspicious, so they need to learn how to adapt more easily to different human behaviours. Scorpios are brave and therefore they have a lot of friends.

POSITIVE TRAITS
 We are talking about a determined and hypnotic personality. Many of these natives are so good with words and subconscious manipulation they can change the mind of the most stubborn person. The biggest strength of any Scorpio is represented by the fact they are usually full of curiosity and they want to know what is going on everywhere. Many of their surprising actions show how fearless they can be when they have the right motivation. Some other Scorpio qualities include being good with words and body language as these natives have complex personalities that unravel in time. They are not only extremely inquisitive but they are also poised and loyal and quite private when it comes to their own affairs. Once someone wins their true respect they are sure to act very respectable and be a great company. A victorious Scorpio knows how to make use of their magnetic and passionate charm to attract interesting people and opportunities.

NEGATIVE TRAITS
 One of the things Scorpios need to learn is to stop being so controlling and demanding and listen more to what others have to say. They are possessive and jealous with people they get attached to and intolerant with those who make mistakes that affect them. Sometimes they incline to easy hurt others and have quite a resentful nature as they rarely forget and forgive. Scorpio weaknesses include jealousy and possessiveness for no particular reason. But the biggest of them all is the fact that they can be quite devious and tricky to handle when they are set to obtain something at all cost. Scorpio individuals can make their life easier if they relax and try not to have such a resentful and intolerant nature.

HEALTH

Their general health seems to present an average interest for Scorpio people. Whilst they are happy to try healthy diets and activities, they are not overly concerned with keeping fit or avoiding disease at all costs. Stress does take a toll on them, especially when they are at their peak working years. The Scorpio zodiac sign rules the genital organs, bladder and associated arteries. This means that these people are more likely to suffer from affections concerning the above mentioned regions. Their lifestyle might also trigger small conditions affecting their sensible organs.

LOVE

The mysterious Scorpio people have their own, very special way in love. Some may say that they overcomplicate everything whilst others will appreciate them exactly for their way of packaging everything in such a complex manner. On the down side, they may find it complicated to exhibit the true depth of their emotions and are not often eager to commit to one person, but when they finally do it, they become very loyal and reliable. However many things they may end up keeping to themselves, with enough patience, you can get to understand even the most complicated Scorpio lover. Credit to them, they are not afraid to appear sensible and weak in front of someone else, although they do try to temper their own impulses as much as possible at the beginning. Scorpios are attracted to sensual partners who know how to handle them and know how to combine praising with criticism. One can conquer the heart and mind of Scorpio by dedicating their life to understanding their complex parade of emotions and also to supporting their impulsive life decisions. When single, these natives enjoy dating rituals and keeping an aura of mystery on their lives.

FAMILY LIFE

Supporting and protecting their family plays an important role in the life of Scorpio. They sometimes tend to sacrifice their own desires for the sake of their family. This is not always the best solution because the outcome may be them being frustrated by their own choices. However, when they reach a balancing point thing go quite calm in their lives. Scorpio children are quite hard to handle as they are sneaky and love to test their parent's patience. Scorpio teenagers follow the same path and seem to be listening only to the tune of their minds. These natives embrace some family traditions but they are not very keen on them.

WOMEN

The Scorpio women are sensitive and charming. Elegant and confident, these women are highly demanding and demonstrative. They are very critical but also emotionally ambiguous. They are both objective and sensible so they most certainly need to set their priorities straight in order to fulfil their dreams and meet their true potential.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

The Scorpio personality is both complex and fascinating. Scorpio women are secretive, sexy, magnetic, but they also appear aloof and calm. The Scorpio woman has a great capacity for kindness and a desire to do good in the world. If you want to seduce her, you have to be patient and willing to let her take the reins of the relationship. Be a good listener and pay full attention when she is speaking. Dating with a Scorpio woman can be really entertaining, but do not let her wild side fool you into thinking that she will be an easy conquest. Don't expect a sexual encounter with the Scorpio woman on the first date. Earning her love requires a lot of time and patience, but once she falls in love, she will give everything to the relationship. The woman born under the Scorpio zodiac sign can be very possessive but also completely devoted partners. Be honest and avoid getting into arguments with her, because she is not the type to forgive and forget easily. The woman born under the Scorpio star sign is curious, so in order to keep her happy, you will need to find new ways to satisfy her curiosity. If you can allow her to retain her pride, she will respect you for it and will fall in love with you quickly.

COMPATIBILITY

Scorpio people tend to put a lot of soul in what they do and it shouldn't come as a surprise that they are just as interested and picky when it comes to whom they are attracted to. The power of water is all very strong here so they get along best with the two water signs: Cancer and Pisces. With Cancerians they share the same emotional sensibility and intuition, while Pisces entice them for being as creative and interesting as them. Scorpio is most compatible with a partner who can understand them and also fulfils all their desires. Such a sign could be Taurus. Whilst at first the relationship may be rocky, in time, the two souls manage to complete each other. Opposite to this, Scorpio people seem to be least compatible with Libras because although passion is there, both signs have different views of life in general and may also not understand each other's emotions

FRIENDSHIP

These are one of the most complicated but well-meaning friends someone can have. They appear to be moody but in fact are quite dependable when their friends ask for help and they often go above and beyond to help those in need. They are sociable but also very possessive with those they are already friends with and it is quite hard to win their appreciation. They are loyal and understanding with those who grow close to them. They tend to keep friends separate from family and they seek for friends that are as interesting and practical as they are.

MEN

The Scorpio men are passionate and intense. They have their own special approach to life that is magnetic and mysterious for everyone else. Despite their confident and charming appearance they are quite tormented sensible souls beneath. They seem to be seeking social contact and affirmation but in their hearts they crave for stability and settlement. They are great with finances and if they would manage them objectively and not on intuition they would have quite a relaxed retirement ahead.

ATTRACTING MEN

Learning how to attract the Scorpio man isn't easy. Scorpio men are tedious, confident, intense, sexual and very competitive. Some of the negative Scorpio traits is the fact that they are highly obsessive, compulsive and jealous people. In order to seduce the Scorpio man, you will have to make sure to keep an air of mystery around you. Games are something that appeal to men born under the Scorpio astrology sign, which means that you will have to work to keep them interested. With a Scorpio man, it's all about the challenge and about capturing something, so don't make it easy and play hard to get. Being honest and affectionate with this sign is also very important. They are attracted to confident and flirtatious women. However, there must be more than physical attraction to get him to the point where he will allow you to seduce him. He also needs an emotional attraction, because one of the most important Scorpio characteristics is the fact that he is the most intensely feeling sign of the zodiac. He longs for a sexual experience that goes beyond physical limitations, so if you want to seduce him, just bare your soul. Never try to control the Scorpio man, because he needs to be in control at all times.

TRAITS

They are determined, innovative but also very noble. Some other Sagittarius traits include an ambitious and clever nature. They are always original and elegant. Sagittarius enjoy offering advice to people and travelling abroad. They are enticed by successful and accomplished persons. On the other hand, those born under Sagittarius hate mediocrity, bad advice and investment. They try to bypass routine and dealing with criticism. It is quite hard to deal with a Sagittarius, as they are very focused on their life and not very willing to let people in easily. The planet Jupiter influences them to be expansive, sociable and risk takers. Being a fire sign, Sagittarius is adventurous, physical and courageous. They are ruled by the ninth house, the symbol of travel, distant places and higher education. A natural Sagittarius, when not thinking about ways to change the world, is magnetic and romantic. Curious and energetic, Sagittarius is one of the biggest travellers among all zodiac signs. Their open mind and philosophical view motivates them to wander around the world in search of the meaning of life. Sagittarius is extrovert, optimistic and enthusiastic, and likes changes. Sagittarius-born are able to transform their thoughts into concrete actions and they will do anything to achieve their goals. Like the other fire signs, Sagittarius needs to be constantly in touch with the world to experience as much as possible. Their enthusiasm has no bounds, and therefore people born under the Sagittarius sign possess a great sense of humour and an intense curiosity. Freedom is their greatest treasure, because only then they can freely travel and explore different cultures and philosophies. Because of their honesty, Sagittarius-born are often impatient and tactless when they need to say or do something, so it's important to learn to express themselves in a tolerant and socially acceptable way.

POSITIVE TRAITS

The ambassadors of Sagittarius are sociable but also frank and ethical, so they are sometimes misjudged by others. Their biggest strength of is represented by the fact they are determined and persistent. Some other Sagittarius qualities include a great sense of humour and energy as they never seem to get any sleep and are the spirit of every social gathering. These people are warm-hearted and considerate with the majority of people they know, unless someone disappoints them. A successful Sagittarius knows how to make use of their friendliness, hard work and ethical conduct in order to attract many opportunities.

NEGATIVE TRAITS

Knowing when to compromise and accept that others may have good ideas too is what Aries need to learn. They are overly confident and prone to building up depression or sadness feelings as they do not open easily to others because they don't want to risk crashing their strong appearance. Sometimes they tend to be very undiplomatic and self absorbed. Aries weaknesses include hastiness, moodiness and intolerance. But the biggest of them all is the fact that they sometimes pride to much of their own person. Aries individuals can make their life easier if they learn to accept defeat and to acknowledge that people are also prone to mistakes and things sometimes don't go the way they planned.

LOVE

A persistent partner, Sagittarius people don't take no for an answer and put passion into everything that has to do with love. These natives are known for aiming high in all matters of life, therefore they are also very pretentious when it comes to love. They find it difficult to show their feelings and they need a bit of pushing, usually by someone close, like a friend who knows them well enough. Sagittarius are enticed by energetic and understanding persons. One can win the attention of the picky Sagittarius lover if they check at least 70% of the items on their list of attributes their significant other should have. A single Sagittarius knows exactly what they are looking for. Unfortunately they are not very aware of where they could find that person so they prefer to focus on other aspects of life and expect love to happen. When in a relationship, they act quite cerebral and calculated.

FAMILY LIFE

Creating a family and supporting it is left second place by most natives because they consider it should come after their own accomplishments. Despite that, the moment they settle down they become the most devoted spouses and parents. They are dependent of their families but in the same time they put a great price on their personal space. Sagittarius children are adventurous but also hard working. They are sometimes over achievers but it's only best that their energy goes in a right direction. Sagittarius teenagers are somewhat rebellious but to the extent that they don't act reckless but they do anything to follow their own well thought plans

WOMEN

The Sagittarius women are elegant and enthusiastic. They are very curious and inquisitive. They want to explore the mind of their partner and to know everything about their closest friends. But this detective like nature of theirs will also send them towards humanitarian and philanthropic actions that they will support with the benefits coming through the hard work and devotion they show in their professional life. These ladies are optimistic and confident and nothing seems to stand in their way.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

Sagittarius women are wild, independent, fun, friendly and outgoing. They enjoy expressing themselves in a sexual manner and they are determined to live life to the fullest. A Sagittarius personality is vibrant, inquisitive, and exciting. Sagittarius woman is an honest woman, who always speaks her mind and values freedom and independence. If you want to seduce the Sagittarius woman, you should ask her out on a date outdoors. She loves adventures and long conversations. Dating a Sagittarius woman requires an adventurous spirit, because she sees everything as a challenge and can't stand boredom. However, although she is wild, do not expect her to fall in love with you immediately. Once the Sagittarius woman does fall in love, she will be a loyal and caring partner. If you give her a reason to think a relationship with you is going to be difficult, she will simply walk out the door. The Sagittarius woman usually has multiple love affairs throughout her life, due to the fact that she will not settle for a relationship that makes her unhappy. In order to date the Sagittarius woman, you will need to possess a free spirit and love of travel. She sees life as one big adventure and expects her partner to be adventurous, spontaneous and romantic.

COMPATIBILITY

Fun loving Sagittarius people often find themselves in the company of the other two fire signs: Aries and Leo. With Aries they share the same enthusiasm of changing things around them while Leos attract them for being just as ambitious and driven as them. In a relationship, Sagittarius is in a permanent search for a relaxed and entertaining partner who can understand them and accept their habits. They are immediately attracted by someone who can show that they can depend on them, who is close to tradition and who appreciates family life. Whilst Gemini is not always the prototype for this, they can build up a strong and exciting relationship. On the contrary Sagittarius people seem to be least compatible with Scorpio as both signs tend to intimidate the other. Although exciting moments can take place, talking about deeper emotions or making plans for the future is something these natives seldom end up doing.

FRIENDSHIP

Sagittarius friends are kind and selfless at times and when it comes to supporting their friends they often go the extra mile. These are one of the most optimistic and encouraging friends someone can have. Friends are not necessarily like family to them, however, these natives feel they don't get to spend enough time with their friends. They are great conversationalists and diplomats but they are also quite straight forward when something is bothering them. They are not the most punctual friends because their lives are so agitated but they always come with the best excuse.

MEN

The Sagittarius men are walking challenges. They are charming, ambitious and entertaining. They benefit from their hard earned success in order to attract around them the persons they want. Beneath that social cover they are sensible optimists, whom search for truth and justice. They have great moral principles although they not always stand beside them. They are great conversationalist and resourceful manipulators. Education is very important to most of these natives.

ATTRACTING MEN

Sagittarius men are fun-loving people and eternal travellers, who are interested in religion, philosophy and the meaning of everything. The man born under the Sagittarius astrology sign loves adventures and sees all the possibilities in life. He wants to explore each and every one of them to determine where is the truth. Some of the best Sagittarius traits are his frankness, courage, and optimism. He is a restless wanderer, so the best you can do to keep his attention is to share in his quest, appreciate his wisdom and respect his opinions. Some of the negative Sagittarius characteristics include his carelessness and impatience. The Sagittarius man can also be tactless, superficial, and over-confident at times. He needs freedom and doesn't like clingy women. If you want to seduce him, you will have to learn when to hold on and when to let go. The Sagittarius man is a logical thinker and an enthusiastic listener, who will listen carefully to everything you have to say, before processing the information and coming to his own conclusions.

TRAITS

They are ambitious, realistic and prudent. Other Capricorn traits for those born between December 22 and January 19 include great determination and a realistic and practical nature. They are fascinated by organized and successful integer persons. Furthermore, people born in Capricorn dislike mediocrity and stupidity. They try to avoid being lied to and having to postpone their plans. It is quite easy to approach Capricorn, as they are sociable and diplomatic persons. Being ruled by Saturn makes them integer and dependable persons with great morals in life. Being an earth sign, Capricorn is down to earth, loyal and trustworthy. This zodiac sign is ruled by the tenth house which is the symbol of work, career and paternal instincts. A genuine Capricorn enjoys situations where they can work with well defined tasks and stick to a plan already made. Capricorn is a sign that represents time and responsibility, and its representatives are traditional and often very serious by nature. These individuals possess an inner state of independence that enables significant progress both in their personal and professional lives. They are masters of self-control and have the ability to lead the way, make solid and realistic plans, and manage many people who work for them at any time. They will learn from their mistakes and get to the top based solely on their experience and expertise. Not only do Capricorn focus on the material world, but they have the ability to use the most out of it. Unfortunately, this element also makes them stiff and sometimes too stubborn to move from one perspective or point in a relationship. They have a hard time accepting differences of other people that are too far from their character, and out of fear might try to impose their traditional values aggressively. Capricorn are practical and responsible, but also cold, distant and unforgiving, prone to the feeling of guilt and turned to the past. They need to learn to forgive in order to make their own life lighter and more positive.

POSITIVE TRAITS

Those born under this zodiac sign are persistent and tenacious but also very patient. The biggest strength of a Capricorn is represented by the fact that these natives are educated and skilled. They enjoy knowing and learning to do as many things as possible but they also know when and with whom to share their extended knowledge. Some other Capricorn qualities are perseverance, honesty and great self control. They are not only energetic task achievers but also very calm and patient persons. They may not aim to change the world, but they sure change the lives of the people around them. An efficacious Capricorn knows how to tackle everything he has to do with care and always having in mind the people involved.

NEGATIVE TRAITS

Learning how to stop being so reticent and cautious and start taking some risks and have a little fun is what these natives need to learn. They are overly cautious, rigid and pessimistic. They hardly embrace change and adventure. Sometimes they incline to acting suspicious or dwelling in extremes. Capricorn weaknesses include being overly cautious and reticent to novelty. But the one weakness most Capricorn display is represented by their resistance to change. They can be quite unimaginative and pessimistic. They are sometimes dictatorial and over controlling with the ones around with the excuse of trying to enforce a good behaviour on them. Capricorn individuals can make their life easier if they stop being so naive and trusting as not everyone has the best intentions.

HEALTH

The way they feel, both emotionally and physically has never been a serious matter for Capricorn people but they are quite careful in general when it comes to their wellbeing so it is probably enough of care. One thing they are particularly proud of is the fact that they rarely complain of any suffering and seem to bear it all on their own. The Capricorn zodiac sign rules the bones, joints and the lower limbs. This implies that these people are prone to suffer from accidents and minor injuries of these parts of the body.

LOVE

You know you can depend on the romantic Capricorn lover who aims to commit for a life time. These people search for a caring and trustworthy partner. They have a natural way of showing their feelings although at times, their shyness may stand in the way. Straightforward and honest, they immediately expect for the other person to reciprocate their feelings. Sweet Capricorns are attracted to people who are sensible and reliable just like them but also to emotional people to whom they can offer support and guidance. When on their own, these natives remain focused on the other aspects of life and are never in a rush to commit if they don't feel it is right. Capricorn in a couple is usually affectionate and careful with the needs of their significant other.

COMPATIBILITY

For the ambitious Capricorn people being surrounded by likeminded people is a prerequisite for success in life so no wonder they are attracted to the other two earth signs: Taurus and Virgo. With Taurians they share the same need for stability and wealth, while Virgoans attract them through the way they organize their lives and with their efficiency. In love, Capricorn is always on the lookout for an attractive and creative companion who can enrich their life. In a relationship they need to feel useful and don't miss out on any opportunity to protect their partner. They may also find themselves attracted to Cancer people, the relationship with whom is like a blank canvas for the artist in them. They support and take pride in putting Cancer on the right track in life. On the other hand, Capricorn people seem to be least compatible with Sagittarians as their ambitious behaviour often collides.

FAMILY LIFE

Protecting and being close to their family plays the leading role in the life of Capricorn. They make great career people but in the end their heart is where their family is. Although they dream of having their own family they are pretentious and only settle when they consider the time is right. Capricorn children are described as smaller adults as they are always so conscious and have such a mature thinking. Capricorn teenagers are only the intermediate stage to the dependable and loyal adults they grow up to be, therefore their youth will probably pass untroubled. The Capricorn individual is dependent of his family and the world seems to revolve around traditional values.

FRIENDSHIP

Capricorn friends are sympathetic but also critical and are sure to give their honest opinion to anyone who is asking. These are one of the most dependable and caring friends someone can have. When it comes to supporting their friends, they go extra mile and they seem not only to provide a shoulder to cry on but also great motivational talk. Friends are like family to them, therefore they are sometimes prone to disappointment due to this attitude of theirs. Capricorn people tend to form sincere friendships at a young age and keep them with the passage of years because they need stability.

WOMEN

The Capricorn women are charming and ambitious. These are the career women who can manage both their professional and family life. They are stubborn but adaptable, practical but elegant. Beneath their calm appearance, lies a strong willed and motivated woman equipped with everything it takes to overcome any storm in their life.

MEN

The Capricorn men are hard working and sensible underneath and warm and composed at surface. They are dependable and practical therefore making great life time partners. They are aware that they need to earn their rewards and that the key is work and persistence. They are patient, loyal and understanding with people whom earned their respect. He will always choose safety and stability instead of risk and hastiness.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

Capricorn women are ambitious, persistent, responsible and reliable. She only wants to find someone to make her smile, and can't wait to open up and feel the real pull of emotion that makes her warm up to the possibilities that lie in the future. It will take some time for her to lower her guard and feel safe and comfortable enough to show just how sensitive and caring she can be when she is in love. She wants her partners responsible, calm, and hard-working, and needs to know that she is taken care of if something bad happens in the future. A Capricorn woman needs to feel comfortable with people she dates and needs time to decide what she wants out of each relationship. Born in a Sun sign that exalts Mars, her instincts and initiative are strong, and this makes her a passionate lover always in charge of her own life no matter the outer circumstances.

ATTRACTING MEN

Capricorn men are determined and ambitious people, who want to reach the top to get the rewards. He prefers reality over uncatchable dreams, but isn't afraid to set some of their more realistic dreams in motion. His need for control is strong, and he could be judgmental towards his partners, expecting them to be something they really aren't. His nature is wrapped up around accomplishment and responsibility and he often doesn't set romantic relationships on the top of his priority list. A Capricorn man wants to take charge and be the one to make the rules from the beginning. He is in search for a practical, grounded partner, and almost always ends up with an emotional one who has a hard time controlling their heart. When starting a relationship, he will think about ways to respect the norm but also show his feelings, expecting the person in front of him to feel comfortable and attractive enough no matter the amount of affection he gives.

TRAITS

They are intellectual individuals with great humanitarian spirits. Some other Aquarius traits include genuine curiosity, sympathy, great organizational skills and a good vibe to everyone they come across with. Aquaruses love having mind stimulating conversations and trying new things. They are captivated by ingenious and energetic people. On the contrary, Aquarius people hate routine and anything that has to do with predictability. They try to stay away from people whom disagree with their ideas and anything that can possibly limit their actions. It is quite easy to discuss with Aquarius, as they are able to adapt their behaviour to the person in front of them. The planet Uranus makes them be progressive thinkers and humanitarians. Being an air sign, Aquarius is mobile, adaptive and energetic. This zodiac sign is ruled by the eleventh house which represents friends, higher dreams and hopes. An authentic Aquarius loves to spend time with mind like people and exchange ideas on various topics. Aquarius-born are shy and quiet, but on the other hand they can be eccentric and energetic. However, in both cases, they are deep thinkers and highly intellectual people who love helping others. They are able to see without prejudice, on both sides, which makes them people who can easily solve problems. Although they can easily adapt to the energy that surrounds them, Aquarius-born have a deep need to be some time alone and away from everything, in order to restore power. People born under the Aquarius sign, look at the world as a place full of possibilities. Aquarius is an air sign, and as such, uses his mind at every opportunity. If there is no mental stimulation, they are bored and lack a motivation to achieve the best result. The ruling planet of Aquarius, Uranus has a timid, abrupt and sometimes aggressive nature, but it also gives Aquarius visionary quality. They are capable of perceiving the future and they know exactly what they want to be doing five or ten years from now. Uranus also gave them the power of quick and easy transformation, so they are known as thinkers, progressives and humanists. They feel good in a group or a community, so they constantly strive to be surrounded by other people. The biggest problem for Aquarius-born is the feeling that they are limited or constrained. Because of the desire for freedom and equality for all, they will always strive to ensure freedom of speech and movement. Aquarius-born have a reputation for being cold and insensitive persons, but this is just their defence mechanism against premature intimacy. They need to learn to trust others and express their emotions in a healthy way.

POSITIVE TRAITS

Those born under the Aquarius star sign are loyal and pleasing personalities. They are curious and introspective persons, genuinely interested and careful to how they live their lives. Their biggest strength is represented by the fact they are so honest and hard working. These people are full of candour and enthusiasm so it is very easy for everyone to like them. Other Aquarius qualities include them being sociable and their broad minds, interested in learning new things. They not only have a pleasing personality but they are also quick to catch new information and are also altruistic enough to share what they know with those around them. A victorious Aquarius knows how to make use of their dependability and popularity amongst their peers to improve their lives.

NEGATIVE TRAITS

Learning when to stop dwelling in past mistakes or in their own faults and weaknesses is one thing Aquarius needs to do. They are at times impractical and stubborn with their fixed ideas. They are aloof at heart but they try to hide their awkwardness by being overly sociable and friendly. They are prone to mood changes and can become nervous when other people don't agree with what they have to say about something. They are cold and detached because they keep avoiding showing any kind of true emotion to other people. Aquarius weaknesses include being easily distracted and even easier to irritate. They sometimes act quite eccentrically and other times they lack any common sense logic. Aquarius individuals can make their life better if they stop acting like they know it all because it not only drives people away but they tend to become very arrogant and self sufficient.

HEALTH

Aquarians tend to be quite emotionally involved in matters that have to do with their health. They feel strongly about healthy habits although they are only temporarily infatuated with them. At times they are quite hypochondriac while at others they consider themselves immune to any disease. The Aquarius zodiac sign rules the blood circulation and lower limbs and this means that these people seem to be having a higher risk of suffering from injuries and infections to the above mentioned areas.

LOVE

The dependable and romantic Libras seek for a lifetime partner to whom they can commit and with whom they can build an accomplished relationship. They are stimulated by enthusiastic and imaginative people but they couldn't respect anyone else more than those who keep their feet on the ground. Libra lovers remain young at heart and mind and carry on being just as affectionate as they were the very first day. By showing you are trustworthy and by remaining constant, you are sure to conquer their hearts. A single Libra is completely focused on their personal development and is in no way in a hurry to enter a relationship if they don't feel it's the right thing to do. When in a couple and decided to commit you can rest assured they will do it for the long run.

FAMILY LIFE

Creating a family plays a secondary role in the life of Aquarius. These natives are more likely to be interested in changing the world rather than changing their lives. They are curious and energetic so most of them will find it quite hard to settle. The Aquarius individual is independent from his family and the world always seems like a better place than home. Aquarius children are apparently calm but actually real volcanoes of energy and enthusiasm. Similar to that, Aquarius teenagers are strongly opinionated and are sure to rebel against any type of authority that tries to undermine their uniqueness. These are the individuals that are complex and fit no profile.

WOMEN

The Aquarius women are in a world complicated. They are complex beings with great personalities. They have a visionary approach to life that is not always easy to understand. They are popular and entertaining and tend to sacrifice their own desires for a higher humanitarian purpose. Miss Aquarius is enigmatic and unpredictable but also very romantic and emotional. These are smart, independent women whom lead their lives by their own convictions.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

Aquarius personality is independent, mysterious, free-spirited and eccentric. Aquarius women have a unique sense of humour and a practical outlook in life. However, inconsistency is a constant problem for women born under the Aquarius zodiac sign. The Aquarius woman longs for romance and good conversation, although she may seem like a cold and aloof person. She is an excellent sex partner, but only if she is convinced that you are interested in more than just a one night stand. If you want to seduce a woman born under the Aquarius star sign, you will have to appeal to the multiple different sides of her personality. Aquarius women are drawn to people who stand out from the crowd, so if you want to attract her attention it's important to come across as a bit different from everyone else she knows. The Aquarius woman is a highly imaginative sex partner, who wants to try out new things on a regular basis. However, make sure to let her know that she is more than just a sex partner to you. The worst mistake you can make when trying to seduce the Aquarius woman is to be too demanding and pushy. Give her lots of freedom, because she is a very independent woman and won't tolerate any kind of control. In order to attract her attention, show her that you're the cool and calm type. The Aquarius woman feels uncomfortable with people who openly express their feelings, so avoid emotionally charged issues and appeal to her intellect instead.

COMPATIBILITY

Air signs flock together just like birds, so don't be surprised if you often see Aquarius in the company of Gemini and Libra. The progressive thinking Aquarius loves just how talkative Gemini is and sometimes has the patience to listen to them, in the hope of learning something new. Whilst with Geminis they share the passion for knowledge and revealing the unknown, Libras entice them with their calm and composed nature. They look at them as examples and try to imitate them. Aquarius' unpredictable nature is most compatible with that of people in the same zodiac sign but also with Aries. Opposite to this, Aquarius people tend to have a hard time with Scorpius as partners because their union tends to bring out the selfishness in both signs and between them there will be a constant battle of egos.

FRIENDSHIP

You know that person who will drag you to an art gallery or to a humanitarian event and then try to explain you a lot of things? That's them: the Aquarius friend. They are sociable, witty, one of the most complicated but also the most entertaining friends someone can have. When it comes to supporting their friends they go the extra mile, usually with the help of a creative workaround. Unfortunately, they are surrounded by so many people that they don't usually keep a strong contact with all their friends. Aquarius people tend to form friendships based on chance encounters. They also tend to keep friends separate from family therefore maintaining some sort of an emotional distance.

MEN

The Aquarius men are inquisitive, open and adventurous. They love to travel, discover new things and meet new people. They also tend to make everyone embrace their opinions. This man is innovative, great conversationalist and great observer. Travelling the world is his hidden dream. The Aquarius man does have his eccentricities and is rarely complying with the rules. Although sociable, he finds it hard to open his heart to another person.

ATTRACTING MEN

You should learn about all the positive and negative Aquarius traits if you want to seduce man born under this zodiac sign. Aquarius men are unpredictable, intelligent, social, independent and excellent communicators. Some of the negative Aquarius characteristics include unreliability, stubbornness, indecision, and inflexibility. If you want to seduce the man born under the Aquarius sign, you will have to be cool about it. If you ever come on too strong emotionally for this man, he will never even think about taking you to bed. The Aquarius man can often live inside his own mind, so he needs a companion to talk about the progressive thoughts he creates. So, if you want to seduce him, you should be friends first. Most of their romances tend to start out as friendships which gradually evolve into something more serious. This means that the Aquarius men will never enter into a romantic relationship with someone who isn't already a friend. Be patient and keep things on a platonic basis until you're ready to make your first big move. Respect his need for freedom, his individuality, and his desire to make a difference in the world.

A successful Pisces knows how to make use of their innovative and idealistic natures to bring progress around them.

NEGATIVE TRAITS
One of the things Pisces need to learn is to not over rely on intuition and to consider every important decision they have to make in life with a clear mind. They are credulous, lazy and weak willed. Sometimes they tend to act pretty childish and therefore risk driving away serious and dependable people. They are prone to negative behaviours such as lack of initiative due to recurrent feelings of self depreciation at the slightest sign that things don't go the way they want them to. Pisces' weaknesses include moodiness and self pity and. They are sometimes indecisive and are prone to become victims of their ideals and of their overly trusting nature. But the one weakness most Pisces fight against is being prone to gloom and melancholy as they to combine moments when they are feeling pessimistic with moments of introspection and of course nothing good will come out of this habit.

LOVE

Versatile and enthusiastic as a partner, you are not going to get bored next to a Pisces. Also, they won't allow you to forget any of their developing feelings. They actually find it satisfying to describe the changes they experience and are drawn to the mystic side of life. If you don't believe in serenity by now, just allow a bit more time with them and you will. They love dating and meeting new and exciting persons but when it comes to commitment they avoid any kind of attachment. The fact that they need convincing is an understatement. At the same time, some things can be that simple that one can conquer the heart of Pisces just by keeping up with them. Action driven Pisces lovers are attracted to mysterious, sensual and energetic persons who can keep up with their crazy lifestyle. However, keep note that even these wonderers can be struck by love so when they finally settle with someone they are turned into the most romantic and loving of all partners.

FAMILY LIFE

Creating a family comes after their own accomplishments for the dreamy Pisces. These natives will always be children at heart and they are not very keen to accommodate their own family. The Pisces individual is innovative therefore does not put a high price on traditional values and instead tries to build his own principles. Pisces children are full of imagination and quite talkative. Pisces teenagers, on the other hand, are adventurous and hard to manage but they succeed to overcome the difficult phases all by themselves. In a nutshell, Pisces don't feel any need to sacrifice their own desires in order to go on the family path but as soon as love strikes them, they are sure to follow.

WOMEN

The Pisces women are mysterious and sensual. They are just as dreamy as every Pisces but they do have something magnetic in the way they act. Miss Pisces always follows her heart, although at times she is mistaken. No worry, she will raise and be more enthusiastic and optimistic than ever. She puts a great price on emotion and on creating a spiritual connection with people. These natives are always expressing how they feel through their hobbies or even through work.

ATTRACTING WOMEN

Pisces women are known as kind, imaginative, compassionate, selfless and extremely sensitive individuals. If you want to attract the woman born under the Pisces zodiac signs, you need to be romantic and to have a good sense of humor. It is also important to be a good listener. The Pisces personality is compassionate and full of unconditional love. Once you have captured her attention, she will be quick to open up to you. A sex with the Pisces woman will be explosive and you will never be bored with her in the bedroom. The woman born under the Pisces star sign enjoys lively discussions about spiritual things and the supernatural. She is intuitive and will quickly figure out if all you are looking for is just sex. She wants to be treated with respect and you will never be able to seduce her fully during the first few dates. If you're honest and if you open up to her, she will immediately feel more connected with you. The Pisces woman is very sensitive by nature, so she is not quick to forgive and forget. If her heart has been wounded in the past, she will have a hard time opening herself back up to the thought of a new romantic relationship.

COMPATIBILITY

Spiritual and passionate Pisces is attracted to the other two water signs: Cancer and Scorpio. The first has the same intuitive tendencies and is just as oriented towards creating different things whilst the second maintains their need for mystery and unpredictability. Pisces is most compatible with those, who, just like them, are in permanent search for novelty and experience. They rarely settle but when they do, their many expectations for a perfect relationship arise and demand to be met as soon as possible. A zodiac sign who offers just this and extra stability and indulges all their desires, would be Taurus. On the other hand, Pisces people seem to be least compatible with Aquarians as they tend to clash when it comes to plans for the future and their relationship with friends. Of course, those born in Pisces display different particularities when in contact with the other eleven zodiac signs and each of these combinations is worth to be discussed separately.

FRIENDSHIP

A Pisces friend is caring and affectionate and will often go out of their way to help a friend in need. These are one of the most loyal friends someone can have. Friends are like family for them and sometimes they act quite naive and can be easily disappointed. Pisces people tend to form strong and positive friendships at a young age and will follow through with them in life. If not, at a more advanced age, they will seek to re-connect. What you should remember is that with a Pisces friend you can have a lot of fun but also benefit from the support needed at hard times.

MEN

The Pisces men are generous but also predatory, just like the duality of their sign. They can be the most caring and affectionate to a person and the most resentful enemy to another. It's all in their senses and the way they perceive the world. These natives are highly intuitive and spiritual but also sociable and outgoing. These men are charmers with multiple sides to reveal.

ATTRACTING MEN

Romance rules the world of the Pisces men. The man born under the Pisces astrology sign lives to please and love. The best way to seduce a Pisces man is to open up to him completely. Some of the best Pisces traits are his sensitivity, compassion, and kindness. He is a gentle person who will figure out what you want and then serve it up as often as possible. He is always looking for ways to help others and knows exactly what you want almost before you do. His desire to please leaves him susceptible to manipulation and lies. He will use his wild imagination to please you. The Pisces man loves to laugh, so if he finds you funny and easy to be around, you are on a good way to seduce him. He seems calm on the outside, but on the inside, you will find a different person, as the Pisces man battles between strong emotions. Encourage him to open up and release those feelings. One of the greatest Pisces characteristics is the ability to tune into others emotions. So, if you are dating a Pisces man, you can look forward to an emotionally fulfilling relationship.
